综合样例

某柱状图显示：2010–2020 年间，中国大学生每周用于体育锻炼的平均时间从 1.2 小时上升到 4.1 小时。

- 1. 规律锻炼有助于身心健康
- 2. 培养习惯影响生活方式

1

According to the bar chart, it can be seen that the average weekly exercise time among college students in China increased steadily from 1.2 hours in 2010 to 4.1 hours in 2020. It is apparent from the statistics that more and more college students are attaching increasing importance to physical exercise in recent years. Such a trend raises an important question: what factors contribute to this change?

Several factors contribute to this pattern. Above all, the majority of young people believe that regular exercise is fundamental to maintaining good health, which enables them to stay physically and mentally healthy. Furthermore, it is widely acknowledged that physical training plays a crucial role in promoting both physical and mental well-being, deeply influencing students' lifestyles by encouraging positive habits. In the end, all these factors taken together, the growing awareness of health naturally leads to a healthier and more balanced lifestyle among college students.

To sum up, the discussion leads us to the realization that developing good exercise habits is not an option, but a necessity. It is imperative for universities and relevant departments to pay more attention to sports facilities and organize more campus fitness activities. Students, for their part, ought to spare no pains to establish regular exercise routines and make physical activity an integral part of their daily life. In this way, hopefully, we may have a better future.

根据条形图显示，中国大学生平均每周锻炼时间从2010年的1.2小时稳步增长至2020年的4.1小时。统计数据表明，近年来越来越多的大学生开始重视体育锻炼。这一趋势引发了一个重要问题：哪些因素促成了这种变化？

8

造成这种现象的原因主要有以下几点。首先，多数年轻人认为规律锻炼对保持健康至关重要，这使他们能够保持身心健康。此外，体育锻炼在促进身心健康方面发挥着关键作用，通过培养积极习惯深刻影响着学生的生活方式。最终，综合考虑所有因素，健康意识的提升自然促使大学生形成更健康、更均衡的生活方式。

综上所述，这场讨论让我们认识到：养成良好运动习惯并非可有可无的选择，而是不可或缺的必要之举。高校及相关部门亟需加强体育设施建设，组织更多校园健身活动；学生们也应不遗余力地建立规律锻炼机制，让体育活动成为日常生活的自然组成部分。唯有如此，我们才能迎来更美好的未来。

| 1 | According to the bar chart, it can be seen that the proportion of urban population had visible soared during last two decades. It is apparent from the statistics that the urbanization rate of our country is getting higher and higher. |
| 2 | |
| 3 | A variety of reasons can be cited to account for this phenomenon. Above all, the majority of people believe that the city will provide them with a boarder platform to get more opportunities and more employment position, which is likely to secure a competitive edge in the future. Furthermore, it is well known that the infrastructure and the economy of the city is better than the countryside. In the end, it is the longing for a better life that drives people to move from the countryside to the city. |
| 4 | |
| 5 | It is not difficult to draw the conclusion that enough attention must to turned to the urbanization by the department concerned. Never can we give up our efforts to the construction of our city. Only through the joint efforts of all people can we effectively have a better future. |

9 According to the bar chart, the urban population in China has increased 10 remarkably from 300 million to 666 million over the past two decades, while
11 the rural population has been declining accordingly from 834 million to 674
12 million. The data clearly show that the country has been experiencing a 13 rapid process of urbanization.

16
17 According to the bar chart, China has seen a clear rise in its urban
18 population during the past two decades, increasing from 300 million to 666
19 million. In contrast, the rural population has dropped from 834 million to 20 674 million in the same period. The figures show that our country has been 21 undergoing a rapid and steady process of urbanization.

Several reasons can account for this trend. To begin with, many people believe that cities offer more chances for work and personal development, which may help them gain a better position in the future. In addition, cities usually provide better infrastructure, public services and living conditions than rural areas. Besides, an increasing number of people are pursuing a higher quality of life, which encourages them to move from the countryside to cities.

In conclusion, urbanization is an important social change that deserves close attention from the government and the public. Only through effective policies and joint efforts can we guide this process in a healthy way and build a better future for our cities.

- 1 According to the line chart, it can be seen that in our country the number of museums increase from 4165 in 2013 to 4692 in 2015, during the same period. the number of visitors to museums climbed remarkably from 637.8 million in 2013 to 781.1 million in 2015. It is apparent from the statistics that more and more people enjoy the public service from museums. Such a trend raises an important question: what factors contribute to this change?
- 3 Several factors contributes to this pattern. Above all, the majority of people believe that the museum infrastructures are fundamental to achieving residents' satisfaction, which enable them to have more convenient chance to touch history, art and technology. Furthermore, it is widely acknowledged that museums play a crucial role in the pursuit of the spiritual world, deeply influencing people's attitudes or behaviors by expanding their horizons. In the end, all these factors taken together, the development of museums naturally lead to higher life satisfaction.
- 4
- 5 To sum up, all the evidence points to the fact that museums have become an issue that calls for our continuous attention. It is imperative for the departments concerned to pay more attention to museums. In this way, hopefully, we may have a better future.

The statistics clearly indicate that museums are becoming increasingly popular among the public. This trend naturally raises an important question: what factors have contributed to such a change?
- 2
- 3 Several reasons can account for this phenomenon. To begin with, the rapid improvement of museum facilities has greatly enhanced visitors' experience, enabling the public to gain easier access to history, art and technology. In addition, museums are playing a growing role in enriching people's spiritual life. By broadening visitors' horizons and fostering cultural appreciation, they have become an important part of people's pursuit of personal growth. Taken together, these factors have significantly boosted the public's enthusiasm for museums.
- 5 In conclusion, the upward trend shown in the chart highlights the increasing significance of museums in modern society. It is essential for the relevant departments to continue improving museum services so that the public may enjoy richer cultural resources and a more fulfilling life in the future.

- 1 According to the bar chart, it can be seen that the exercise along, exercise with friend, exercise with family and group activity accounts for 54.3%, 47.7%, 23.9% and 15.8% respectively. Especially, exercise along ranks the first and group activity ranks at the bottom. What accounts for this distribution?

- 2 Several reasons can account for this phenomenon. Above all, the majority of people believe that having their own exercise style is fundamental to achieving the control and schedule of their daily life, which enables them to maintain good health. Furthermore, it is widely acknowledged that the company of other people plays a crucial role in enhancing social interaction. But in nowadays, more and more people cannot escape the cage named social anxiety which makes them lack of company. In the end, all these factors taken together, it is naturally leads to this polarization.
- 3 To sum up, all the evidence points to the fact that exercise with others has become an issue that calls for our continuous attention. It is imperative for the relevant departments to pay more attention to hold more group activities. We ought to spare no pains to attach importance to connecting with others by exercise. In this way, hopefully we may have a better future.

- 1 According to the bar chart, people choose different ways of exercising, among which exercising alone ranks first at 54.3%, followed by exercising with friends at 47.7%, exercising with family at 23.9%, and group activities at only 15.8%. The sharp contrast suggests that independent exercise has become the dominant trend.
- 2
- 3 Several factors may explain this phenomenon. To begin with, many individuals prefer exercising alone because it allows them to arrange their schedule freely and concentrate better on personal fitness goals. This flexibility is essential for maintaining a healthy and efficient lifestyle. In addition, although exercising with others can strengthen interpersonal relationships, an increasing number of people today suffer from social anxiety or feel uncomfortable in group settings, which discourages them from joining collective activities. As a result, group-based exercise appears much less popular.
- 5 In conclusion, the data highlights the need to encourage people to participate more in group exercise. Relevant departments and communities should organize diverse sports events to create supportive environments for social interaction. Meanwhile, individuals ought to make an effort to communicate with others and enjoy the benefits of exercising together. Only in this way can we build a healthier and more connected society.

- 1 The line chart above shows the changes in China's health literacy level from 2012 to 2021. Specifically, it increased gradually from 8.8% in 2012 to 11.58% in 2016, and then witnessed a remarkable rise to 25.40% in 2021. It is apparent that the health literacy level has been developing rapidly in recent years.
- 2
- 3 Three key reasons, in my view, can account for this trend. Firstly, the growing public awareness of health has encouraged individuals to proactively seek and absorb health-related knowledge. Secondly, the continuous improvement of medical infrastructure, such as the expansion of community health centers, has provided broader and more accessible platforms for public education. Lastly, the overall improvement in people's health has inspired a stronger desire to maintain and enhance this positive momentum.
- 4
- 5 By no means should we cease our pursuit of health literacy growth. It is imperative for the authorities to allocate more funds to promote it, and individuals should spare no effort to exercise regularly. In this way, we can look forward to a healthier and brighter future.
- 6
- 7 上面的折线图展示了中国健康素养水平从 2012 年到 2021 年的变化情况。具体而言,该水平从 2012 年的 8.8% 逐渐上升至 2016 年的 11.58%, 随后又显著上升至 2021 年的 25.40%。显然,近年来健康素养水平发展迅速。
- 8 在我看来,造成这种趋势的三个关键原因如下。首先,公众健康意识的不断增强促使个人主动寻求并吸收与健康相关的知识。其次,医疗基础设施的不断改善,比如社区卫生中心的扩建,为公众教育提供了更广泛且更便捷的平台。最后,人们整体健康状况的改善激发了他们更强烈的意愿去保持并增强这种积极的态势。
- 9 我们绝不能停止对健康素养提升的追求。政府必须投入更多资金来推动这一进程,而个人也应不遗余力地坚持锻炼。如此一来,我们就能期待一个更加健康、更加美好的未来。

- 1 The bar chart highlights the dominance of watching TV in the daily leisure life of the elderly, which overshadows all other components. The participation rate in watching TV, walking, gardening, reading and playing chess among the elderly accounts for 90.8%, 68.3%, 34.7%, 31.8%, and 18.4% respectively. It is apparent from the statistics that the majority of elderly residents would choose to engage in accessible and low-intensity leisure activities when they have free time.
- 2
- 3 There are many reasons to explain my viewpoint. Above all, the majority of people believe that watching TV and reading newspapers will create more opportunities for them to follow current affairs, which is indispensable in their daily life. Furthermore, there is no doubt that walking and gardening play a crucial role in the physical and mental health of the elderly. In the end, the main reason of playing chess with the lowest rate is a lack of companionship. Many elderly people live alone so they tend to choose solitary activities.
- 5 To sum up, a colorful life of the elderly is not an option, but a necessity. The department concerned must pay enough attention to the elderly leisure activities, such as hold a chess competition and create reading club. Family members should also provide more companionship and understanding to the elderly. In this way, hopefully, the elderly may have better twilight years.
